2. The contents of the travel contract is determined by the BTC published travel program and / or by another of BTC publication(s) - a thing referred to as: the travel program. For each desired deviation or addition a written confirmation required by BTC.

Article 3 – Payment

1. Payment of the invoice must be done within the time limits specified on the invoice / confirmation.
2. In case of late payment by the client, BTC reserves the right to cancel the booked trip, where cancellation costs calculated. Articles 7 and 11 apply here.

Article 4 – Travel fee, travel duration and travel program

1. The published rates are per person. This travel fee only includes the services and facilities which are listed in the travel program.
2. The published price is based on prices, exchange rates and taxes as they were known by BTC at the date of printing, offering or publishing of the travel program. BTC reserves the right in case of changes in prices, exchange rates or taxes, to amend the travel fee. If this change is an increase in the travel fee of more than 15%, then the client has the right to cancel the trip to claim a refund of previously paid fare(s). Said cancellation must however be made in writing before the trip begins or, if earlier, within five days after BTC communicates the increased price to the client.
3. If the duration of the program is specified in days, the days of departure and arrival count as whole days.
4. Obvious mistakes and errors in the travel program do not bind BTC.

Article 5 – Documents

1. Upon departure and during the trip, the passenger must be in the possession of the necessary documents, including a valid passport and any required visas, vaccination certificates and vaccinations.
2. If the traveler cannot fully experience the trip because of lack of documents, this and all associated consequences and costs are for his account and/or for the account of the client.

Article 6 – Travel documents

1. By rule, the required travel documents will be in the possession of the client one week prior to the departure date, provided that the full payment is received by BTC. BTC accepts no responsibility for photos, brochures and other information provided and/or published by third parties..
2. Costs resulting from loss and/or theft of travel documents (flight tickets etc.) are for the account of the traveler. Article 9, paragraph 4 shall also apply.

Article 7 - Changes and cancellation by the client

1. Until two days before departure, the client may request changes in the travel agreement, including replacement of a notified traveler. BTC will apply these changes as far as possible under the obligation of the client to pay administrative costs to which the change applies with a minimum of € 25, - per change.
2. If a travel agreement is canceled by the client for any traveler, besides the invoiced fees, the following amounts are due (unless otherwise stated in the event brochure/information):
 - Cancellation between 6 weeks and 4 weeks before departure: 50% of the fare
 - Cancellation within 4 weeks before departure: 100% of the fare
3. A cancellation must be in writing. The date of cancellation shall be the date of received by BTC.

Article 8 - Changes and cancellation by BTC

1. BTC reserves the right to make changes in transport which, among other things, may involve the change of the place of departure (within reasonable limits), of another type of the same means of transport and of another carrier, all this without an increase of the fare.
2. BTC reserves the right to change the hotel accommodation, without increasing the price, provided that a minimum equivalent accommodation is offered to the passenger.
3. BTC reserves the right to cancel the trip due to an insufficient participation, the minimum number of participants is not reached. Notification of this will always be at least 7 days before the date of departure. The entire sum will be refunded to the client by BTC.
4. If due to force majeure, including strikes, weather conditions, lack of transport, etc., a journey cannot be performed, BTC requires itself to fully repay all or part of the fare fee, excluding costs made for administrative costs to a minimum of € 25, - per passenger. However, conditions of 3rd parties such as hotels, airlines, etc. will prevail the BTC conditions.

Article 9 - Liability of BTC

1. If the tour does not meet the expectations, BTC is liable for the resulting damage occurred, subject to the provisions of the following paragraphs.
2. The implementation of the agreement in the travel services provided by third parties is partly to assess to the habits and customs of the country and the place where these services are provided and weigh to the amount of the fare.
3. BTC is not liable for the damage referred to in the first paragraph, to the extent that this is not its fault, nor under the Dutch law or in the traffic of the Netherlands generally accepted views.
4. The liability for damages, for which the usual travel and cancellation insurance give coverage, and for damages which client, the traveler, may suffer in connection with the exercise of a trade or profession, is excluded.

Article 10 - Obligations and liability of the traveler

1. The traveler is obliged to comply with all instructions of BTC to facilitate the proper execution of the trip and is liable for damage caused by its unlawful conduct, judging by the standard of conduct of a proper passenger. Each traveler must adhere to the times given in the travel program and the instructions of the guides.
